

The National Educators' Institute for Jewish Service Learning

June 21-25, 2009
University of Maryland, College Park

Cost Information

The tuition for the Institute is $835. Tuition includes room, board, and all program expenses. Participants are responsible for the additional cost of travel to the Institute.

Participants will be housed two per room in a hotel adjacent to the campus of the University of Maryland. Singles are available for an additional fee. There will be one meal "on your own" in Washington, DC.

Scholarship Request

Scholarships will be provided on a first-come, first-served basis, although all applications will be reviewed. It is our goal to enable everyone to attend the Institute, so please consider all sources of funding in addition to requesting funds from the Institute.

Please complete an application form and submit it before or along with the scholarship request. Both documents should be sent to liak@panim.org or 301-770-6365 (fax).
